Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 and 8-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Favre et al.(U.S.Pat.5,472,719).

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 4 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being clearly anticipated by Guglielmo EP 1 364 605.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 6-7 and 8-10 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Favre in view of Guglielmo. Favre discloses an apparatus for the preparation of an edible liquid that shows all the features of the claimed invention but fails to explicitly show diffusion means and channeling means. Guglielmo discloses a cartridge for coffee and soluble products for the extraction of drinks from said cartridge that explicitly shows diffusion means and channeling means. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the claimed invention to use the diffusion and channeling means, as taught by Guglielmo, col. 3 lines 7-27, with the device of Favre so as to channel and pressurize and then diffuse and extract the product.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Snvitale, Selby and Fond are cited to show structure similar to the claimed invention.
